The third ViDSS Brownbag Session aims at providing useful tips and tricks for planning a research stay or field work abroad and for submitting a successful funding application.

Tatjana Boczy (ViDSS student in sociology) and Marlene Persch (ViDSS student in social and cultural anthropology), who have already conducted research stays abroad, will provide insights into their experiences.

Barbara Good (Head of International Office) will introduce different funding opportunities for doctoral candidates and the ViDSS administration team will provide additional advice.

Target group: doctoral candidates in the social science
Venue: online via Zoom
