ViDSS Brownbag Session: International mobility during the doctoral studies

The first ViDSS Brownbag Session in the winter semester of 2023/2024 aims at providing useful tips and tricks for planning a research stay or field work abroad and for submitting a successful funding application.

Ivan Josipovich (ViDSS student in political science) and Hannah Myott (ViDSS student in social and cultural anthropology), who have already conducted research stays abroad, will provide insights into their experiences.

Barbara Good (Head of International Office) will introduce different funding opportunities for doctoral candidates and the ViDSS administration team will provide additional advice.

Venue: online via Zoom
